WB S37 2017 – Summary Timeline

Year	2016				2017
Month	Feb / March / April	May / June / July	August / September / October	November / December	January	February
Event	Children's services are working with Y's sibling, X, (step sister) who is in an abusive relationship with her boyfriend. Y not considered in assessment despite living in the family home. Y receiving support through school pastoral Team at school due to difficult relationships with her peers. Support sessions are ongoing. During a home visit to older sibling (X), mother explained that boyfriend had	House Fire — significant damage lost pets, clothes including school uniform. Family living in temporary accommodation/hotels. Y staying with friends. Y noted to have advised school that she has wet the bed every night since fire. Positive support sessions continue for Y in school. Positive support record indicates Y feeling upset and disrupted. Difficulties with friends, nightmares, bed wetting and ongoing fears. GP advised that Y's mum should request counselling through school. Emotional advice	Healthy relationships work undertaken with Y. Evolve refer Y to Equilibrium due to disclosure of witnessing domestic abuse between her step sister and her boyfriend. Several sessions completed in response to this. September session identifies Y revealing that she has a boyfriend. It is noted that Mother is unaware of the relationship. Positive support worksheets completed — what makes a good friend, what makes a bad friend.	Disagreement between Y and a friend. Restorative practice (RP) was used to resolve disagreements. Further Equilibrium sessions covering topics which include healthy relationships, emotions, managing anger, positive self- talk. Positive Support Record highlights Y aware that boyfriend may be moving away permanently and the records indicating concern that this could be potentially difficult for Y to handle.	January - further consideration to referring to exchange counselling. January - Y discloses in support worker that her boyfriend sometimes sleeps over. Y witnessed arguing with girls in school about spreading rumours by Evolve worker. Evolve due to close the case. Healthy relationships work completed, advice given on managing issues in school. Y sends a message to Evolve worker to explain she doesn't want to be in school as the rumour issues were ongoing.	Sudden Death attempted to strangle X a few nights ago and had attempted to bite her legs. Boyfriend is no longer welcome in the home. X due to begin work around healthy relationships. It was unclear where the incident took place and whether Y was present. and support given but identified need for professional help. Support via the school limited due to impending school closure for summer. It is noted that a referral would be made in September when school recommenced.

July – Y noted to be a little less stressed and nightmares have stopped. Y explained upset over friend issues on Facebook: advice given.

X still open to children's services and care and support review takes place still no consideration given Y within the family.

End of July, Evolve become involved and meet Y for house assessment. Y says she is happier but would like some support. Continued work with Positive support sessions. Y explains her friend networks are ok.

Reference in positive support record that Y disclosed she had a boyfriend (younger than her) and that she appeared 'smitten'. Record outlines the concern that if relationship ended Y wouldn't cope with it very well. Records that this will be kept an eye on. Action point – check on boyfriend situation.

X resumes her relationship with boyfriend.

Later in November incident of assault in school between girls, Y not directly involved.

Police receive information that a registered sex offender has been living at the home address. Identified that Y and X also live at the address. No PPN submitted to Children Services but person subsequently arrested and charged with breach of conditions.

Further significant dispute between Y and her peers at school. Each girl gave statement, Restorative Practice approach used.

1-2-1 with Evolve, Y says things are good at Advice given to seek support from school staff.

Towards the end of January records show Y stating that she is doing well. Needs to improve attendance. RP sessions to continue to assist Y and plan to close case to Evolve.

home and school and that she feels settled.
Evolve review meeting. Work with Y to close. Mum and Y told that her attendance needs improvement and consideration was given to counselling services.