

Appendix 2 : WB N40 2017 – Summary Timeline

Year
Month	2012 - 2013	2014 January to June	2014 July to December	2015 January to March	2015 April to July	2015 August
Event	Child A has bruise on face, seen by PAU, injury not safeguarding concern. Father charged with assault on an adult, received supervision order. Both parents see GP about low mood. Prescribed medication but not always complaint with medication. Did not engaged with any additional mental health services. Family 3 times in one month.	New Playgroup started and children attending. Speech therapist unable to complete assessment due to limited engagement. Child B was home alone when health practitioner attended home for appointment. Police were not immediately called. When referral was made to social services later that day, initially this incident was not reported. Rather concerns about family being social isolated and not engaging with services was the concern. When mother was spoken to about this, a week later by social worker mother stated she	Police attend home following domestic dispute between parents. Mother pregnant with 4th child. Initial Child Protection Conference held and children registered under category of neglect. Father reported by mother to be struggling with his mental health and aggression. In August, father moves out of home permanently. Ongoing concerns that children are biting other children, coming to school with bruises and bite marks frequently,	PLO commences Child A and B go and live with wider family. In February, concerns noted by professionals that grandparents were struggling to manage the care of the children. Unified assessment started. In February child A has a graze to his neck that he says is caused by his paternal grandmother. CP process initiated CP medical concludes that the explanation does not fit the injury and it is unexplained. In addition, while this was being investigated mother witnessed to	In April social worker raised concerns of mothers handling of child D. Ongoing behavioural concerns in respect of the siblings living with grandparents. Limited engagement from mother with all professionals and health visitor concerned mother was prop feeding. Great-grandmother becomes ill and passes away. Mother and child D live together. Mother starts new relationship. PLO assessment includes this	Mother reported to not be engaging with support services Ongoing unified assessment of maternal grandparents in respect of their care of the other siblings. 25th August child D has X rays following concerns raised by GP of swelling to

	Limited engaged with health visitor and child A's 2 year medical check was not completed. Playgroup offered but later withdrawn as not attending. Concerns raised by health visitor about speech and language development for child A.	was in the shower. No further action taken following visit. School staff report concerns that child A appears hungry in school and their behaviour was a cause for concern. No further action taken. Child A burns hand on cooker, mother later states that she was sleeping when this happened. 3rd Referral made to social services due to concerns about children's behaviour. Initial Assessment undertaken. Child A seen to be smearing faeces on the walls in the home. Parents were hostile to any involvement. Child Protection investigation initiated following threats made to the family by wider	which are reported to be caused by each other in the home. Mother reports to professionals that she is managing these behaviours at home. Ongoing concerns in respect of mothers parenting of the children and observations of lack of boundaries in place from mother. Mother not regularly attend antenatal appointments. Mother discharged from mental health services due to lack of engagement. Father applies for residence order for child C whom is now in his care following contact. In December midwife and social worker agree birth plan, mother does not attend appointment.	allegedly kick child A by school staff. Mother when questioned denied this. School staff were not spoken to as part of the initial investigation. Child D is born in February and discharged into mother's care with agreement that they live with great grandmother. In March review child protection conference held and children remain on the CP register (including child D), police did not attend, but there was ongoing police investigation at the time in relation to the incident of the graze and the kicking outlined above.	new partner within the assessment. PLO reviewed and continues during this period.	the leg. XRAY results meta physical fracture to right distal tibia and fibula considered to be one injury. XRAY findings discussed with mother unable to give explanation but confirmed that new partner had not looked after baby without mother being present.
--	--	--	--	--	---	---

		community and concerns in respect of parenting capacity.	Local Authority inform mother of Public Law Outline and advise her to get legal advice.	Concerns raised by fostering services that grandparents have slapped the children. Managers agree to visit, but this take 4 weeks.
--	--	--	---	--	--	--